ABOUT RIVER SOUL JOURNEYS

Welcome to River Soul Journeys, the premier spiritual river retreat company in the west. We are a division of ROW Adventures, a company celebrating over 37 years of experience creating river rafting trips in Idaho. We have created an innovative and stimulating spiritual retreat series. Based on the resounding success of our first annual Women's Yoga and Journaling vacation (A Women's Soul Journey through the Deepest Canyon in North America) which was featured in the December issue of Yoga Journal as well as USA Today August 15, 2003, ROW has expanded our spiritual and yoga retreat adventures to several departures, one of which is co-ed.

Every one of our whitewater rafting holidays offers something unique and wonderful. Our Idaho and Oregon spiritual retreat rafting trips offer a variety of settings, levels of whitewater, outdoor activities and spiritual growth paths. Below is a summary of these exciting spiritual vacations and we hope that one may fit into your spiritual path in life right now! Whatever journey you may choose one thing is guaranteed - a noticeable shift in consciousness among all of our guests.

What are Spiritual River Retreats? By definition, a retreat is the act of withdrawing, as into safety or privacy; a place of refuge or seclusion. The remote wilderness river canyons of the American West are the perfect setting to find refuge in the embrace of Mother Nature. While you rest, relax and explore these magical river canyons, you will rediscover your true, powerful and real self. Inspiration and adventure guide us down the river canyons. ROW's River Soul Journeys include fly-fishing, hiking, yoga, journaling, meditation, native plants and animals, new friends and new discovery as well as amazing food to feed our souls. All of this away from the stresses of every day life! No phones, computers, cars or other distractions. There is nothing but the security and authenticity of nature.

We offer both co-ed and women only spiritual retreats. Each rafting adventure offers a different twist, whether it is a new river or a new focus, and each guarantees a noticeable transformational shift in consciousness.

Participants are encouraged to join our caring and talented guides to heal and renew as you look at your choices and what you truly want to create in your life. Creating meaning, balance and clarity will help lead you to aliveness, adventure and accountability. To know that we each hold the power of choice and creation in our own lives is a gift with infinite value.

You are your only limitation on these trips – we support your full discovery of what you want to create in your life right now! Our spiritual river retreats are designed to allow each guest time to release, time to rejuvenate and time to explore the enchanting rivers we run.

If you are ready to say YES to what you truly want in your life – please consider one of our incredible River Soul Journeys as a jump-start to the life you are about to embark on – one never before imagined!

SUSTAINABLE TRAVEL

ROW is dedicated to sustainable travel and adheres to the highest standards of stewardship for the environment and cultures in the areas where we operate. With superlative guides and artfully orchestrated itineraries, our goal is to connect people in a meaningful and personally relevant way to the places we visit. We work to inspire guests to become actively involved in, and advocates for, the preservation and conservation of the places they visit.

Environmental Ethics

One of our core values is respecting the Earth. We practice this at all levels at ROW, from our office and field operations where we try to minimize our footprint through wise energy use, recycling, reducing and reusing. We source as many of our supplies and food locally as is possible. A small example of our care is the use of Fair Trade and shade grown coffee on our trips.

We observe wildlife in a sensitive manner, while enlightening our guests on the history of the plants and animals before us. Through education, we believe we can increase understanding and awareness of our world and its precious species.

Economic Responsibility

ROW Adventures is a strong advocate for wild rivers. We support many river conservation groups with both time and money. We also encourage our guests to help. When you receive your invoice from us, you will find a $1 per person per day voluntary donation included. Depending on the trip this money goes to Idaho Rivers United, American Rivers, Klamath-Siskiyou Wildlands Center or the Rogue River Keeper program. All are superb non-profit conservation groups working to protect wild rivers, fish and clean water for the communities that depend on them. If you choose not to donate simply delete this item from your invoice when you remit payment.

ROW's trips support the local economy. We hire local guides and buy all our trip provisions and food in local communities. This means our trips and the money you pay for them has a significant impact to our local area.

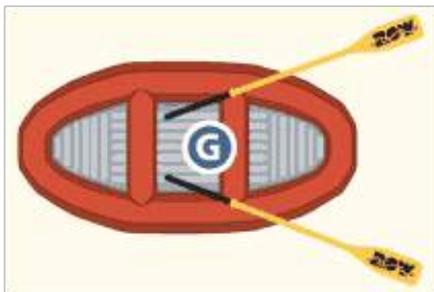

Our trips offer an excellent opportunity for our guests to interact with locals, providing a cultural element that allows you to learn more about the American West.

TYPES OF WATERCRAFT

Paddle Raft or Stern Mount - Teamwork and fun are key elements of paddle rafting! With paddle in hand, your guide helps you navigate the rapids. To maximize the fun ROW uses the smallest possible paddle rafts for each river and water condition. These rafts are 12-16 feet and carry from five to seven passengers plus a guide. Usually the guide also uses a paddle, but we sometimes add two oars in the back for additional strength and maneuverability. This hybrid raft is known as a stern mount.

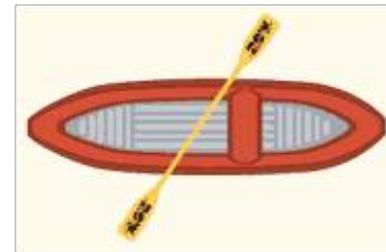

Oar Rafts - The perfect place to kick back, take pictures and enjoy the scenery. Rowed by a skilled guide using wooden oars, these 16-18 foot rafts have lots of room. Custom-made aluminum boxes carry our kitchen and dry goods. Huge coolers packed with ice carry fresh food and cold beverages. The padded passenger seat across the front doubles as a kitchen table at camp.

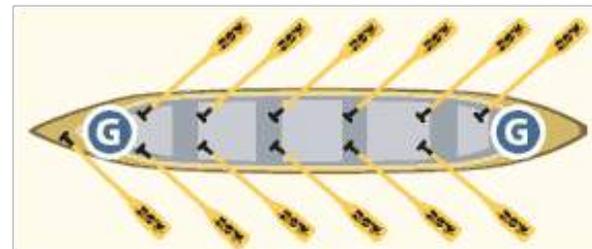

Sweep Rafts - On trips larger than 13 guests ROW runs a sweep raft. This boat and guide arrive early in camp and set up the kitchen as well as the spacious tents that ROW provides. When the rest of the group arrives all you have to do is carry your personal gear to the tent of your choice and roll out your sleeping bag.

Daring Duckies - ROW's name for inflatable kayaks, Daring Duckies™ are 11-13 feet long and carry one or two people. Even with no prior experience, these stable craft allow you to enjoy the thrill of the river kayaking within minutes of putting on your flotation device and helmet. On appropriate rivers, you can reserve one for exclusive use, or share with others on the trip.

Voyageur Canoe - On the Missouri River ROW runs 34' canoes that replicate those early fur traders used. Carrying 10-16 paddlers, these stable and maneuverable canoes create the perfect platform to gaze upon the passing scenery and tell stories of the river. Smaller 17' canoes are also available.

TRIP DETAILS

When to Go

These trips are offered throughout the summer. Any river canyon can vary widely day to day. Spring and fall trips are cooler while the summer season can be very hot. Blue skies & sunshine are predominant but rain can happen any time so please bring rain gear!

Guidelines for Gratuities

If you are happy with the service you receive, it will be more than welcome. Tipping is a very personal matter and the decision to tip and how much to give is entirely yours. If you believe your guide deserves a tip, a suggested range is from 7-12% of your trip cost. If you had the time of your life, then the sky is the limit! We also appreciate your comments. We use your feedback to recognize extraordinary guest service and to discover areas where we can make improvements. Our goal is to exceed your expectations! Tips can be given to the "ROW Team Leader", who will distribute equally among the crew.

What are typical meals on the river?

The quality of our food reflects the quality of the wilderness environment in Hells Canyon. We hand-select the freshest fruits and vegetables we can find and pack them carefully in huge ice-coolers. Likewise, these coolers carry fresh dairy products and meats. From these ingredients we prepare bountiful, healthy meals. Sustainably harvested wild Alaskan Salmon served with a fresh garden salad; Prime Rib combined with a fresh Chilean salad and Idaho mashed potatoes or made-on-the-river lasagna is a few possible entrees. Big salads of vegetables and fruit add color and variety to every meal. Desserts are made each evening in our Dutch ovens and range from authentic cobbler and pineapple upside-down cake. We serve juice each morning and moderate amounts of bottled wine with dinner. We also provide two beers and two sodas or juices per person per day. There's always plenty of cold water, lemonade mix, tea, coffee and cocoa. You're welcome to bring your own beverages or alcohol as well. We always have plenty of ice to keep your drinks cold.

What type of watercraft do you use?

In addition to the cargo boat that carries all the camping gear, we use three other kinds of river craft. The traditional raft is a 16-foot self-bailing, oar-powered raft which a guide controls with two large oars. (Many companies use 18-22 foot rafts, which take a good deal of the fun out of the rapids.) We also offer smaller 14-foot paddle rafts. Four to six people paddle while a guide steers. On some stretches of river, we can add inflatable kayaks, or Daring Duckies, to the mix.

You have the choice to ride in any of these boats, and many people enjoy trying all three during a trip. On the few trips we operate with less than 13 guests, we may not have enough people to support a paddle raft. (We will still have duckies on smaller trips, if requested.)

Who guides your trips?

On any river trip, the guides are the most important factor for your safety, enjoyment, and the success of the trip. ROW guides are exceptional people with years of river experience. We maintain a tobacco-free policy and most of our guides have taken interpretation courses from certified instructors. We look for guides who are willing and eager to share, teach, listen, learn, laugh, play, discuss, and, above all, work hard to provide a safe, relaxed and spontaneous adventure. Guides show you the way to a nearby hot spring, give a fly-fishing lesson, or just to sit and visit with the group. Our guides are the main reason many of our guests return to ROW time and time again. (References gladly provided.)

What do I do with extra luggage?

Depending on the trip, luggage can be left in your car, at the local lodging accommodations or given to ROW to transport to your ending point

What gear do I need?

All your clothing and personal items should fit into a soft-sided duffel bag (maximum duffel size: 24" long by 17" wide by 10" high). If you are on a camp trip, your sleeping bag/pad does not need to fit into your soft-sided duffel bag. When you meet us for your trip, we will provide you with a dry bag that you can put your duffel bag into. River attire is very casual – comfort and convenience take precedence over style! Clothing should be fast drying. Cotton materials, such as jeans and sweatshirts, are poor choices for wearing on the river. When they get wet, they may take days to dry. Synthetic materials such as nylon and capilene dry quickly and are also cool on hot days. If you are sensitive to the sun, be sure to bring long sleeved shirts, long pants, socks and a hat to protect your skin. Sunburn on the river happens fast and can be severe. ROW will provide you with a gear list for the river you are on as the specific gear for each trip may vary.

How fit do I need to be?

The level of fitness required depends on the river you choose. On ROW's trips lasting three or more days, you have a choice of craft. Oar-powered rafts are those where the guide rows and you simply relax (or hold on in the rapids) and these require very little effort. Paddle rafts and duckies require more effort as you will have a paddle in your hands and will be paddling during the rapids. You should be reasonably healthy, and must be able to fit into the PFD we provide. (Any person weighing more than 260 pounds, or having a chest size greater than 52" should contact our office before signing up for any trip.)

On some of our more challenging rivers where unintentional swimming, long hiking or high elevations are a possibility, a higher level of fitness is advised. Always discuss with our staff if you're unsure what's acceptable for you. If you're still in doubt about your ability to go rafting, or your fitness, check with your doctor before you go. While many trips require little physical fitness, being in good shape will enhance your vacation.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

OUR COMMITMENT

Our hope is that your first trip with ROW Adventures is just one of many. Thus our goal is to provide thorough and complete communications and be clear with the details of our agreement with you. Because the fine print sometimes changes, you will receive the most current Terms & Conditions along with your travel documents at the time of booking.

PREPARING FOR YOUR TRIP

We do our best to provide you with all kinds of great resources to prepare for your trip. These include packing lists, reading lists, detailed itineraries and more. All of our multiday river camping trips include tents, sleeping bags and pads. In most cases we will even help you book a hotel room prior to and after your trip. The reservation packet that we send you will include a detailed gear list of what you should bring.

Most of our trips are suitable for beginners; however, some are more active than others. A spirit of flexibility and adventure is a good thing to bring along. It's important that you understand the physical requirements for whatever trip you choose. If you're not sure about this, or you're not sure which trip or date will best meet your needs, please call for advice from our talented and knowledgeable Adventure Consultants. Be sure to read the "Trip Member's Responsibility" below and if you have any medical concerns we encourage you to speak with your doctor before reserving space on a trip. If you are planning a special event during the trip such as a birthday or anniversary, please let us know as we always have a few surprises up our sleeves. On our trip application form you can indicate any food need you might have and we're happy to accommodate those.

HOW TO SIGN UP

To make a reservation, please contact us by one of the following methods: 1) Call us at 800-451-6034 – Monday-Friday from 8:30 to 5:00 pm Pacific Time. 2) Send us an email at info@rowadventures.com 3) Use the "Reserve Spot" tab found on every trip page on our website.

We accept all major credit cards for the initial deposit. When we receive your trip application and deposit we will confirm your space and send you a confirmation packet including a suggested packing list. However, confirmation is not final until we also receive a copy of your completed trip application. Credit cards are accepted for deposits only – the balance must be paid by check. While it is often possible to join one of our trips on short notice, space is limited and we recommend you sign up well in advance.

DEPOSITS

The following deposit amounts are required to confirm your reservation:

Trips lasting 6 or more days: $500 per person.

Trips lasting 4 or 5 days: $400 per person.

Trips lasting 3 days: $300 per person.

BALANCE DUE

USA-based trips: Full payment is due 60 days prior to departure. International trips: Full payment is due 90 days prior to departure. Reservations made after the balance due date must be paid in full at the time of booking. We reserve the right to cancel your reservation if full payment is not received by the due date.

CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS

If you find it necessary to cancel your trip, you should notify ROW Adventures in writing, by e-mail or fax immediately. If written cancellation is received (call to verify) before the final balance is due, you will be given a refund less the amount of the deposit.

Deposits are not refundable. If cancellations are made on or after the final due date, no money will be refunded. If you are unable to go on the trip, you are welcome to find a replacement for yourself. Please understand that once you've signed up we lose the right to sell your reserved space to other individuals or groups. Therefore, we regret that we cannot make exceptions for personal emergencies. For this reason we strongly recommend you consider purchasing the Travel Protection Plan ROW offers.

TRANSFER FEES

If you transfer from one trip to another, there is a $75 per person charge for USA-based trips up until 60 days prior to departure and a $100 per person charge for international trips up until 90 days prior to departure. Transfers made after these times are treated as cancellations. Transfer fees for some trips such as yachting trips are more stringent.

GROUP AND CHARTER RATES

On most trips, we offer a Group Rate for groups of 10 or more.

We are also happy to arrange private charter trips. Contact us for details.

TRAVEL PROTECTION PLAN

We strongly recommend that you purchase a travel protection plan which can include a full trip refund should you cancel at any time for medical or health reasons. Coverage also includes medical evacuation, trip delay, and other elements. Because so many of our guests purchase this plan, we add the cost to your invoice as a convenience and it becomes effective on the day your premium is received in our office. Should you not wish to purchase this travel plan, simply deduct its cost from your invoice.

TRIP MEMBER'S RESPONSIBILITY

Trip members have the responsibility to select a trip appropriate to their abilities and interests. We are happy to discuss the trip with you if you have any questions or concerns. Trip members are held responsible for being in sufficient good health to undertake the trip.

Members are also responsible for studying all pre-departure information; for bringing the appropriate clothing and equipment as detailed therein and for acting in a manner considerate of fellow group members. Any person who is diabetic, epileptic, asthmatic, has a history of heart trouble, is allergic to bee/scorpion stings or takes daily prescription drugs should include this information on the reservation form or inform our office. Trip members will also alert their guide (s) of any medical history that could become a problem on the trip. People with a history of heart trouble, pregnant women or any other potentially serious medical condition should consult their doctor before coming on a trip.

RESPONSIBILITY ~ AN IMPORTANT NOTICE

(dba ROW Adventures), its subsidiaries and cooperating agencies act only in the capacity of agents for the participants in all matters relating to transportation and/or all other related travel services and assume no responsibility or liability whatsoever for injury, loss or damage to person or property, however caused, in connection with any service, including, but not limited to, that resulting directly or indirectly from acts of God, detention, irregularity, annoyance, delays and expenses arising from strikes, theft, quarantine, pilferage, force majeure, failure of any means of conveyance to arrive or depart as schedule, government restrictions or regulations, civil disturbances and discrepancies or changes in transit over which we have no control. ROW Adventures reserves the right, either prior to or after departure, in its good-faith discretion and in circumstances that warrant it, to change or re-price any tour, trip or expedition. This includes the possibility of moving to a different river or river segment due to extreme water conditions, forest fires, road closures and/or acts of God. If we are not able to provide a substitute trip, river or altered itinerary and have to cancel the departure completely, you will be refunded in full. Refunds are limited to the amount actually paid to ROW Adventures.

For non USA-based trips, ROW Adventures must normally make substantial payments to its suppliers (hotels, transportation companies, etc.) far in advance of the trip departure date. ROW Adventures reserves the right to cancel trips that are below the trip minimum (usually 4-5 persons). All trip members will be notified a minimum of 30 days before the trip departs and will receive a full refund. In the event of trip cancellation, ROW Adventures is not responsible for additional expenses incurred by trip members, such as penalties incurred through the purchase of non-refundable airline tickets, medical expenses and passport and visa fees.

FOREIGN TRAVEL

Our Galapagos Islands, Baja, Croatia and other non-US trips are operated by independent suppliers. These trips are arranged through Remote Odysseys Worldwide, Inc. dba ROW Adventures.

TIERED PRICING

Our trips are budgeted for full or near full sign-ups which enables us to offer trips at the lowest possible price. Because of numerous fixed costs, it is more expensive to operate a trip for a small group. Therefore, on some of our trips, in order to avoid having to cancel a trip, we have a "tier-pricing" system to avoid canceling a trip with a low number of sign ups. We have found that most people also prefer this alternative to having a trip cancelled. Thus, you will not see our trip prices there is a different price for 6-8 people versus 9-10, versus 11-12. Tier pricing is calculated on the number of full revenue passengers. Trip physicians, staff or guests of ROW (travel writers, trip leaders-in-training, office staff, etc.) are not included in the tier pricing structure. Trip costs quoted are based on foreign exchange rates current at the time of this printing. We reserve the right to raise the trip fee if there are exceptional cost increases beyond our control. We will initially invoice you at the higher tier price and refund the difference depending on the final group size.

AIR RESERVATIONS

You may book air transportation for this trip through one of the airlines online booking sites, by working with a local travel agent, or contacting ROW's preferred provider – Exitot Travel at 800-655-4053 or online at www.exitotravel.com. This is an independent company that has wholesale agreements with several airlines and can often get very good fares. If you do book online or buy discount tickets through a consolidator, the tickets can be restrictive and you should review the booking conditions carefully. These tickets tend to have stiff penalties for changes or cancellations. Once you have booked your flights, please fax or mail us a copy of your air itinerary so we can inform your trip leader of your expected arrival.

WAITING LISTS

If you wish to be wait-listed for a full trip, the normal deposit is required. If an opening occurs on the trip, you will be informed and automatically transferred to the trip roster if you wish to join the trip, subject to the normal cancellation policy should you accept the slot. Otherwise, your deposit will be refunded in full. ROW Adventures reserved the right to take photographic or film records of any of our trips and may use any such records for promotional and/or commercial purposes. ROW Adventures reserved the right to decline to accept, or restrain from further participation, any person whose actions or deportment impede trip operations or rights, welfare or enjoyment of other trip members. A refund based on cost of unused land services is the limit of ROW Adventures responsibility.
